

Dear Partners,

On behalf of the Brest branch of the Belarusian Chamber of Commerce and Industry we proudly invite foreign enterprises and companies to take part in the II International B2B Contact Fair "Brest 2017" to be held on the 27th – 28th April 2017 in Brest, Belarus.

"Brest-2017" is a modern international business platform for dialogue between the representatives of diverse business sectors, government agencies, non-governmental organizations and the media; a platform for negotiation between the manufacturers, suppliers and retail chains, investors and investees.

Special attention will be paid to the creation of favorable settings for attracting private investment in production, infrastructure and tourism, including state - private partnership ventures. The event is designed to promote the inter-business cooperation, the conclusion of mutually beneficial contracts and the search for new markets.

At the II International B2B Contact Fair "Brest 2017" the following economy sectors will be represented:

- engineering,
- energy,
- agriculture,
- food processing,
- chemical industry,
- construction,
- construction materials,
- housing utilities,
- wood processing and furniture manufacture,
- light industry,
- transportation and logistics,
- information technologies telecommunications,
- tourism and wellness,
- medicine, pharmaceutical industry,
- consulting, banking and insurance,
- business activity within free economic zone.

The site of the I International B2B Contact Fair "Brest 2017" has brought together about 130 companies from Belarus, Russia, the Ukraine, Poland, Italy, China and Latvia. The representatives of 30 countries, including the representatives of trade and economic departments of the embassies accredited in the Republic of Belarus have attended the fair.

We invite foreign participants doing business in different spheres. Participation in the event will become the opportunity to enter the Belarusian market, to study the competitive environment in the region, to obtain information about investment conditions and economic management in Belarus as well as become a comprehensive solution of a wide range of marketing objectives. Potential partners of Belarusian companies will be invited to visit the specialized companies in accordance with their interests, take part in business meetings and negotiations in B2B format.

In order to register as a participant, book a stand and get more information about the exhibition, please, visit the official website of the fair www.brest-forum.by.

Exhibitors will be able to post their offers on the website to search for a partner, pre-register for B2B matchmaking sessions as well as present their projects or companies.

For contact, please, dial + (375 162) 20 80 80,
+ (375 162) 21 81 02,
+ (375 162) 21 80 36,

or send e-mail to: ved@ccibrest.by

Valery Labun

General director of
Brest Branch of the BelCCI

